Moses prefigured the power of Your precious Cross, O

Tenor
Bass

Christ, when he put to flight his adversary, Amalek, in the wilderness of Si - nai; for when he stretched out his arms in the form of a cross, the peo - ple pre-vailed.

[Now the fulfillment . . .]

Now the fulfillment of these images has come to pass for us. Today the Cross is exalted, and the demons are put to flight. Today all creation has been set free from cor - rup - tion, for through the Cross all the gifts of grace have shone up - on us. Therefore, rejoicing, we all fall be - fore — You and cry: // "How marvelous are Your works, O

[be-fore You and cry:]

Lord! — Glo - ry to You!"
